

VERSAILLES TREATY TOOK EFFECT AT 4:15

EXCHANGE OF RATIFICATIONS BETWEEN GERMANY AND ALLIED POWERS PUT PEACE TREATY INTO EFFECT

By the Associated Press

PARIS, Jan. 10.—The treaty of Versailles, making peace between Germany and the allied powers, was put into effect at 4:15 o'clock this afternoon by the exchange of ratifications.

Von Lersner, head of the German mission, affixed his signature to the protocol at 4:09 o'clock. The entire ceremony which took place in the Clock Hall at the French foreign ministry was completed at 4:16 o'clock.

Von Lersner, previously head of the German mission, signed the protocol of November 9 providing for liberation from indemnity for the sinking of the German warships at Scapa Flow and to insure the carrying out of the armistice terms. The signing of this document occurred in the office of the foreign ministry.

Peaceful relations between Germany and the greater number of nations engaged in the great war with her are established by the action taken in Paris today. The peace treaty now goes into effect as soon as Germany and those powers that have finally ratified it, Great Britain, Italy, Japan, Belgium, Bolivia, Guatemala, Peru, Poland, France, Slovakia, Siam and Uruguay. Great Britain was the first of the five great powers represented on the supreme council of the peace conference to take such action, being followed in succession by France, Italy and Japan. The United States alone of the big five has not ratified the treaty. As the list shows, formal ratifications have been given by most of the smaller powers signatory to the treaty. China did not sign because of her objections to the Shanghai provisions, but proclaimed a state of peace with Germany.

The all important ratification by Germany was given on July 9, 1919, the day following which President Wilson presented the treaty to the United States senate. The making of the peace treaty which now becomes effective, was begun shortly after the conclusion of the armistice of Nov. 11, 1918, which ended the great war. The treaty of Versailles as it has become known, was signed in the historic Versailles palace on June 28, 1919.

The long interval between the assembling of the peace conference on Jan. 18, 1919, and the signing of the treaty was occupied with daily conferences on its provisions between the representatives of the nations which had been at war with Germany or had broken relations with her.

The treaty not only defines the terms of peace with Germany, but contains the league of nations covenant and the present international labor organization.

In October last a sufficient number of powers had ratified the treaty to comply with the requirements for its effectiveness. Since that time the question of the protocol and particularly the reparations provision have been under negotiations between the allied representatives and German government. It was only within the past fortnight that the situation began to clear and adjustment of the tonnage demands upon Germany being reached and the negotiations concluded the signing of the protocol.

Fooling the Undertaker.

Some people say that ringing the wrong number does not cause any trouble and some people say that it does. Dr. Gordon of East Central says that it does. And thereby hangs a tale.

The other day Major Mitchell of the regular army delivered a lecture on tooth carpentry up at the Normal auditorium, and after the lecture was very desirous of securing a jitney to transport him back to town. Always accommodating, Dr. Gordon called a certain number and told the party answering the phone call to send to the normal at once after a man.

In a remarkably short time an ambulance rushed up to the main entrance of the normal, an undertaker and his assistant jumped out, and with a stretcher in hand hurried into the doorway, eagerly asking for the man that was to be transported to town. It took long and laborious conversation on the part of the L. L. D. and the Major to convince the undertaker that he had not been willfully deceived. So Doctor Gordon believes that getting the wrong number causes trouble.

GERMAN ARMY IS UNDER NEW ERA

PRIVATES NO LONGER HAVE TO SUBMIT TO BE PLAY- THINGS OF BOCHE OFFICERS.

By FRANK W. BOSTOCK.

BERLIN, Jan. 9.—When German soldiers and sailors turned on their officers in the revolution and destroyed some whom they hated most, there began a new era in the German army.

The German soldier no longer is the plaything of the officers. He doesn't have to serve if he doesn't want to and the spirit which he showed in revolutionary times has instilled a respect among the officer class which they will never forget. The German officer no longer swaggers down the streets of Berlin. He doesn't push peaceful citizens, women and children off the sidewalk. He does not order his men to fire on citizens who voice their rights.

Immediately after the revolt, privates refused to salute their officers. They nodded and that was about all. But gradually the salute came back and it is given without hesitation, both by officers and men.

Germany is still a military nation. There is a heavy sprinkling of uniformed men on the streets of Berlin, more so than in any other city.

Men are not discharged from the army unless they have obtained employment or the government can give them a job. Germans reply to charges made by the allies, that too large a military establishment is being kept up, that this is done to prevent disturbances and perhaps another revolution. In addition to the regular city police, many German cities have safety police, who dress almost identically like the regular troops.

LAST MINUTE NEWS

League of Nations in Effect. PARIS, Jan. 10.—The putting of the League of Nations into effect, which will be one of the immediate actions of the exchanging of ratifications of the treaty of Versailles, will occur in Paris at 10:30 o'clock the morning of Friday, January 16, the Supreme Council announced today.

Naval Forces to Serve League. LONDON, Jan. 10.—A strong appeal in favor of pulling the American and British naval forces and concentrating them to the service of the League or Nations as an instrument for banishing war from the sea will be made in the articles of the weekly of Graifner in the daily news tomorrow.

OKLAHOMA LEADS AS TIPPING STATE

AND MUSKOGEE IS IN FRONT RANK OF CITIES FOR GEN- EROSITY, ASSERTS VETERAN.

MUSKOGEE, Jan. 10.—Oklahoma ranks first among the states for tips and Muskogee tops all the cities of this section in liberality toward the men who serve the people in public places.

That was the statement Wednesday credited to an old time waiter who began "hashing" away back in the days when the engineer called for a "tank of jaw" and a "string of flats" and who has come on down to the day of pie a la mode with the record of having worked in all the live cities of the country and should know. He brings also the report that the new hotel at Muskogee is to be Statler operated, the holding company having arranged a lease with this famous hotel man.

Muskogee went through the holiday season nobly from the standpoint of the waiter. Many $2 tips were given during Christmas and $5 was not uncommon. Smaller gifts were innumerable. Musicians left their chairs to find on arrival at their rooms that dollar bills were concealed here and there in music rolls. Nobody who took any regular prominent part in furnishing service was overlooked.

"I haven't any way to approximate the amount of money given away here in tips during Christmas," said the veteran waiter, "but I believe it would reach thousands. Of course, I do not say that every single waiter in Muskogee received a cash tip. It may have been that new faces in strange places did not appeal to the patron and some few may have been missed. I do say, however, that everybody furnishing public service here for any stated period has been liberally tipped and continues to receive these gifts from time to time.

"Oklahoma is the most generous state in the union to public servants. Muskogee is a remarkably liberal city. Tips of the larger size come as a rule from oil men, but the business men are not far behind them.

"Tips have not ceased with the passing of the holidays. Bad weather with sleet and ice call for extra service and here the attentive employee, even to the waiter, gets in on extra pay.

"Tips from women are frequent, but more and more liberal from men because they carry the most money with them.

"The frequency and size of tips or pay for special service indicates the prosperity of the state and its cities and it further shows that the public realizes that the h. c. i. has hit the waiter and the public servant as well as the rest of the people."

Prohibition Is Subject for Talk at Big Carnival

Probably the starriest of star attractions billed for next week's all-week carnival will be a debate on the prohibition question by Rev. Clyde Calhoun Morris and Marvin Brown. In the discussion of the topic the Evening News editor will take the "dry" side of the argument, while the militant pastor will champion the cause of the "wets." This is expected to be a lurid exhibition of fact and oratory, as both disputants are conceded to be masters of their respective sides of the painful question.

A seventeen-round bout for the featherweight championship of Ada is scheduled to take place sometime in the week when the moon is full. The contestants for the diamond belt will be H. B. Roach and Owen Fauntleroy, both of whom have had brilliant careers in the squared circle. This contest is limited to seventeen rounds, in order that there may be no violation of the statute against cruelty to animals. Betting will be forbidden, but all restraints on wagering have been lifted.

A feature of first magnitude is said to be the republican convention that will be held early in the week. The convention will be held according to arquis of Queensbury rules. It is announced that "Snow" Cole has been selected to present the name of W. F. Schulte as a candidate for delegate to the Shawnee convention, and "Snow" fame as a spell-binder is a sure guaranty of a high class performance.

GERMAN UPEAVAL IS NOT CONFIRMED

REPORTS OF THE OVERTHROW OF THE GERMAN GOVERN- MENT HAVE NOT BEEN CONFIRMED.

By the Associated Press

LONDON, Jan. 10.—In connection with the unconfirmed reports from Brussels of a German government overthrow, messages from Berlin through Copenhagen did not indicate that anything of an extraordinary nature had been foreseen in Germany up till a late hour tonight.

Brussels reports of a German government overthrow are not confirmed from any other source and it may be noticed that the messages themselves carry their own qualifications emphasizing the lack of positive information.

News dispatches from Germany are ordinarily at least 24 hours in reaching this country and the latest messages from Berlin received Friday bore Thursday's date. These messages indicated unsettled conditions of labor in the vicinity of Essen and the Ruhr industrial district but the unrest reported did not appear to be of unusual significance.

MEN'S CLOTHING IS GOING HIGHER

CLOTHING MEN IN MEETING IN NEW YORK HAVE LITTLE ENCOURAGEMENT TO OFFER.

By the Associated Press

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Further increases in the price of men's clothing without much change in style were predicted today by delegates who attended the tenth annual convention of the International Association of Clothing Designers here. Labor contributes about 90 per cent to the cost of a suit, it was said.

While the supply of cloth was said to be increasing, the designers offered little hope that this would decrease the cost of cloth.

The clothiers were disinclined to believe reports from London that purple, gold and bright colors would be worn by men, and declared that conservatism, both as to the cut and fabric, would prevail in the United States and Canada.

Bank Deposits Double During the Past Year

Deposits in the banks of Ada on December 31, 1919, reached the highest total ever recorded here and an increase of 102 per cent over the same time a year ago.

The figures for December 31 show that the deposits in the four banks of the city reach the imposing total of $4,517,358.98. On the same date a year ago the deposits were only $2,022,047.08. The increase in deposits for the year is thus $2,495,311.90—an increase of 102 per cent.

The total resources of the Ada banks a year ago are given as $3,167,455.95. On December 31, the total resources had increased to $5,062,123.68. This showing is a remarkable one and is a showing for Ada that can hardly be surpassed by any city in the agricultural districts of Oklahoma.

Ada Playhouses

At the Liberty.

Showing at the Liberty today is Cleo Madison in the second episode of the "Great Radium Mystery," another feature on today's program is that funny blackface comedian, Bobby Burns, in a comedy called "Sultan D. Jazz," together with one of those funny animal comedies, "Weak Minds and Wild Lions." These animal comedies are great, using a lion, bear, donkey, goat and dogs are now used in the making of comedies very successfully, doing lots of different comedy stunts and then the picture orchestra featuring the picture all the while.

The American.

Showing at this popular playhouse today are Franklin Farnum and Helen Chadwick in "Go Get 'Em, Garringers." This is a real western picture and one that you cannot afford to miss if you like the western stuff. Next Monday the American will show the first episode in a great serial entitled "The Black Secret." Pearl White, the famous star from Missouri, will play the lead in this great picture.

ARMORE THEATER MAN RECOMMENDS ROQUEMORE

The Liberty Theater is advertising the Roquemore Musical Comedy Co. for a week's engagement here next week. This company was here last year and the people were very much pleased with their entertainments. Mr. McSwain, manager of the Liberty, this morning received the following wire from L. N. Cox, manager of the Princess at Ardmore, giving his opinion of the company:

Ardmore, Okla., Jan. 9, 1920.

Foster McSwain, Ada, Okla. Henry Roquemore Musical Comedy Co. is playing my theater this week to packed houses. Fine company with best collection of vaudeville features ever seen in Ardmore. They will more than please.

BLAMES THE STEEL TRUST FOR ALLILLS

ORGANIZED CAPITAL GREATER MENACE THAN ORGANIZED LABOR, SAYS ASSISTANT PROSECUTOR.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 9.—"Organized capital is a greater menace to this country than is organized labor. I believe that the United States Steel corporation is the father of the economic ills from which we are suffering today. John L. Lewis and William Green I consider better citizens than Elbert H. Gary."

That is the belligerent attitude taken by C. B. Ames, assistant to the United States attorney general, last night in speaking on the economic problems before the country to 500 men at the Chamber of Commerce.

Ames was in charge of the fight which resulted in the end of the coal miners' strike and is in charge of the suit for the dissolution of the United States Steel corporation.

"Public Must Assert Rights." "Innocent bystanders have stood by too long and they should now take capital and labor by the neck and make them settle their differences fairly without so much inconvenience to the public," Ames said.

"Labor is fighting for what it believes to be right while capital is fighting for power. Organized capital today is a worse menace than organized labor. J. L. Lewis and William Green, officials of the United Mine Workers, are better citizens than E. H. Gary of the United States Steel corporation. It is not the open fights of labor, but the secret scheming of capital." (Continued on Page Eight.)

Officers Stage Biggest Raid In Several Years

Local officers pulled off the biggest raid of several seasons in Davenport yesterday afternoon and breaking into a highly developed game of chance arrested a large and goodly audience of white and colored gentlemen. The officers' cars were loaded with calaboose bound prisoners, while the number left to walk in resembled Coxe's army as they goose-stepped down Broadway to the city hall. The color scheme was carried out (so it is reported) the white prisoners riding in Ford cars, while the colored contingent tracked it thru the snow.

Three of the prisoners entered their plea of guilty in mayor's court immediately. The other sixteen appeared in open court this morning and paid up on yesterday and today were Isaac Thomas, Goldsby Perry, Levi Morgan, Sam McKay, Forest Lewis, Jess Rivers, Will Freelon, Claude Shepard, Lorenzo Johnson, George Owens, Luther Cross, O. L. Crane, Ira Scott, Ed Price, K. Jeter, H. Robertson, Roy Tate, R. E. Miller and Henry Sweeny. Seven of the number were white and twelve otherwise.

FROM VICTORY TO VIOLENCE.

A year ago the nation was rejoicing in the conclusion of the greatest event in her history and it seemed that Peace everlasting would reward the efforts of her mobilized millions. The horrors of war were ended and a happy future seemed assured. The menace of the sinister Hun had been removed and America was free to enjoy her immense possibilities.

A year has passed and thus far the country has only emerged from Victory to Violence; from conquest to chaos; Sacrifice to Strike; and the Rule of Reason is supplanted by Riot and Revolution. If the future years are to be measured by 1919, we have lost the war.

Would Hindenburg and Ludendorff do less evil to the country than Lewis and Foster? Our troubles are many and multiplying, but they are not all of foreign origin. Not all of them can be traced to German propaganda, nor to the later Russian Bolshevism. The base is pure American, concerning lineage. The founder of the discontent of today, the sower of the seed was the political demagogue of yesterday, whose chief pride was in being "rabble rouser." We are paying today for fifteen years' of previous political pandering and the "Crown of Thorns" of the brow of Labor was the start of it all.—The Employer.

CHECK GIRL SUES A CHICAGO TIP TRUST

CLAIMS SHE WAS BILKED OUT OF OVER TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS IN TIPS FOR ONE YEAR.

By the Associated Press

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—Miss Helen Stires, for two years a check girl in a restaurant here, in a suit filed in the superior court today sought to secure $2,425 from the "Chicago tipping trust." She alleges that she received the amount in tips in two years and was compelled to give it to the "trust."

Three men are named defendants. These men have acquired a checking concession in most hotels and cafes, said Miss Stires. They pay girls from $9 to $15 a week and compel them to drop tips in a small iron bank which is camouflaged with paper.

"I was a checker for two years and turned in more than $2,500 in that time."

Socialists Control Germany.

MR. AND MRS. BEAVER.

"It's so nice to have the same mate forever," said Mrs. Beaver.

"That is what I think," said Mr. Beaver.

"And I suppose because beavers do think that way we always do stick to our mates," said Mrs. Beaver.

"I suppose so," said Mr. Beaver, "but when one is satisfied and happy why go a-searching for other happiness and leave behind all you've got?"

"That is what I can't understand," said Mrs. Beaver, "but I believe that is where beavers are sensible. They are intelligent and they know when they are happy, and they don't go looking about them to find something new. They are intelligent to know happiness when they see it, and so they know when they have picked out the mate of their choice that they will be happy. It's almost always the rule."

"And every year," said Mr. Beaver, "we add so nicely to the family with two or three or four or five little new beavers."

"Our home is such a nice one," said Mrs. Beaver. "How I do like an underground entrance; not underground, but underwater. I should say! Then we have a nice passageway or hall which leads to our home, where you and I can be so comfortable and where the children can have such a happy, nice playroom."

"Then you are such a great builder. Ah, I cannot understand the creature who doesn't want her mate to be a great success. It's so fine to be able to look up to one's mate. And you can build canals and dams and houses, you can knock down trees and you can carry mud and stones and twigs and sticks."

"You don't have to employ workmen. You can do everything yourself, and you're not ashamed to. You have had your own ways for years and years and years, and you've been able to do everything for yourself. And so people, after a time, came to admire you, as after a time they will admire those who work and accomplish things and who aren't ashamed to try, and who don't think any sort of work is beneath them."

"That's why the beaver family are so much admired. And one of the reasons, I do believe, that make beaver mates so happy and so loving and so true is because we're such a busy family. That, I believe, is the secret of the whole thing."

"Able to Look Up."

"I believe you're right," said Mr. Beaver, "and you're a fine little worker yourself."

"We've made use of what has been given to us. We have been able to use our flat tails as rudders when we swam or when we were diving for anything, and we can make a great noise with it as we splash it on the water if we're warning that danger is near."

"We learned how to use our front feet as hands and we can swim along holding up to us the mud we have gathered and take it along where we go and where we need it."

"And when it is cold during the winter, and so many ponds freeze, we have sense enough to put our food away ahead of time, and so we have it ready in our underwater houses."

"We don't wish for it after the cold weather comes, but we arrange about it before hand, just like people who put pennies and things in a bank so when they are ill or have something happen they've got something to help them with."

"Yes," said Mr. Beaver, "I think we deserve a little of the praise we get from people, and if we do sometimes destroy too many trees and if we are too fond of cornfields in the summer—all creatures have their weaknesses!"

"But the thing you said, Mrs. Beaver, is the truth! Beavers have the great intelligence to know when they're happy, which is more than lots of creatures do. And one of the great secrets of it, I quite agree with you, is, that we're such a busy family and we don't waste our time waiting for something to turn up."

"And the night time is when we like to work best, isn't it, my love?"

Plain Enough.

In the zoology class at a primary school, says the Forecast, the boys and girls had just been studying the rhinoceros.

"And what is this?" asked the teacher, turning to a picture of a giraffe. "Well, Johnny, tell us," she said, in answer to an eagerly raised hand.

"It's a U-icorn. You can tell by its 'caricape!'—Youth's Companion.

FOREIGN OFFICIALS FILL WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Mar. 16.—More foreign governments are represented by embassy and legations in Washington than in any other capital in the world. In all 42 countries have accredited representatives here. Besides these there are as many unofficial representatives of nationalities seeking recognition from the American government. Chief among these latter are representatives of the Irish, Ukrainians, Armenians, Lithuanians and Albanians. Only the states of Monaco and San Marino appear to remain unrepresented.

Albania, whose status is one of the principal points of controversy in the Adriatic problem has as its "envoy", C. A. Shekrez, a graduate of Harvard University, one of the first of his country ever to appear in America on a professed governmental mission. Another of the Balkan states, Montenegro, still maintains its legation despite the incorporation of Montenegro in the Serb-Croat-Slovene states and the deposition of former King Nicholas, whom the legation ostensibly represented. Bulgaria, a third Balkan state, occupied the position, during the war, of being the only country at war against the Allies, and yet represented here by a legation. Diplomatic relations between the United States and Bulgaria were never severed.

Russia officially is represented by Boris Bakhmeteff, the ambassador sent to this country by Kerensky shortly after the overthrow of his staff continue to be carried on the diplomatic list of the State Department while that of Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, Soviet "ambassador" appears only on lists in the records of the Department of Justice.

GERMANS CONTINUE TO FIX WHEAT PRICE

By the Associated Press

BERLIN, March 16.—The German government has decided to retain throughout the coming harvest its policy of fixing prices for wheat, potatoes and other basic food commodities, despite strong opposition by the farmers. At the same time it has announced that the minimum prices which may be demanded for these food supplies will be increased by 100 per cent for wheat and 300 per cent for potatoes. These advances are intended as a partial concession to producers, to allow for the reduced purchasing power of German money and the increased cost of production.

Under the new scale of minimum prices wheat is fixed at not less than 1,000 marks a ton, potatoes at 500 marks a ton, rye 900 marks, barley and oats 800 marks. This fixing of a minimum price is a reversal from the former procedure when maximum prices were fixed. Producers had opposed the maximum price system on the ground that it failed to provide for the general increased cost of production.

Farmers also vigorously opposed continuance of the government's policy of fixing prices and vainly attempted to have the free trading system restored. The government, acting through the Economic Council, insisted that the price fixing was necessary because the food situation continues precarious and because Germany is obliged to rely upon her own production until the country is placed in a better position for buying in foreign countries.

The government cited as evidence of probable disastrous results if control of prices were removed, the fact that when oats were released for free trading they sold in the open market at 4,400 marks a ton while wheat was fetching 500 marks a ton.

Dickering for Jubaland

Jubaland is not the name of a musical comedy, but a portion of British East Africa which may be joined to Italian Somaliland if negotiations between Great Britain and Italy are successful.

"Few other undeveloped regions on that vast Continent," says a National Geographic Society bulletin, "hold such agricultural opportunities for individuals or companies which can handle native labor as do the vast uncultivated plains on which rubber, cotton and tobacco can be grown."

"Jubaland now is the northernmost part of British East Africa, lying west of the Juba river. Few white men have penetrated the fastnesses of this country, which touches Abyssinia on the north, Uganda on the west and Italian Somaliland on the east. Its southern portion fringes the equator. With the exception of the Juba, there are no navigable streams of note leading inland."

"Within Jubaland's territory, only a little less in area than Italy, perhaps 250,000 members of the Somali and Galla tribes live. The Gallas are of a high physical quality. They are dark brown in color, and generally tall and well formed, and their deep-sunk lively eyes give their faces a keen, intelligent look. They are warlike nomads, and roam with their herds of camels, ponies, cows and fat-tailed sheep over the greasy uplands of their country. Within recent years the Somali who live further to the north have gradually pushed into the Galla country and are sending its people southward and westward. The Gallas are hospitable, brave in battle and keen in trading.

"Their women enjoy an exceptional amount of freedom as compared with that given the women of most African tribes. They may even reject an undesirable suitor. Both men and women usually wear a mantle of coarse cotton, and make up for the lack in number of their garments by adorning themselves with ornaments of brass and iron. The men wear necklaces of the brighter metal leaving the fashion of armlets and anklets of more inconspicuous substances to women."

Hiram Johnson's charges of a slush fund against him may be doing some candidate a terrible injustice. The slush fund may be coming merely from the candidate's friends. —Durant Democrat.

WOMEN WATCHING WORK OF CONGRESS

College women have established national headquarters in a historic building facing the White House across Lafayette Square in Washington. There are two main purposes, one national, the other international, both aiming at increasing the opportunities for service of trained women in affairs. This larger movement of college women is a direct result of the service trained women gave during the war in this and in other countries, notably England, and an early step may be the formation of a federation of college women all over the world.

The organization will work in harmony with the League of Nations, with especial reference to drawing educated women in all countries together in efforts to improve the conditions of women and children. One of the first guests of prominence at the new clubhouse will be Dr. Caroline Spurgeon, Professor of Literature in the University of London, one of the three women invited to this country by the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, the name of the college women's organization.

The Association of Collegiate Alumnae, organized in Boston in 1882, now comprises graduates from eighty colleges and universities. Before it was decided to establish a national clubhouse in Washington, there were branches of the association in all parts of the country, with a constituency of many thousand members. The number of college graduates in the country is estimated at 500,000 and efforts are to be made to draw as many of these as are eligible into the A. C. A. Representatives and senators are to become aware of the college women and their demands, just as they have been made aware of the presence of other organizations in Washington.

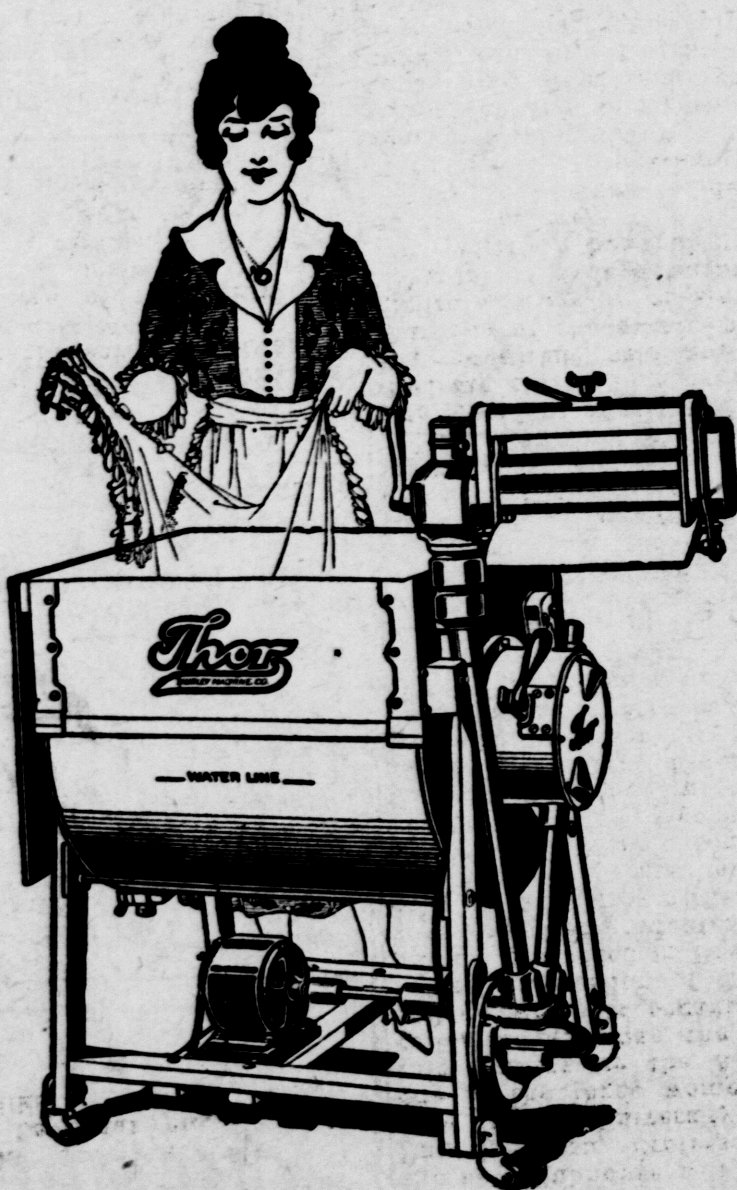

Mrs. Raymond B. Morgan, who was president of the A. C. A. during the war period, and is a leader in the movement, said not long since that one of the purposes of the organization was to obtain the establishment of a department of education with the head of it a member of the cabinet.

"We are, of course, deeply interested in the education of children," she said, "and we think the importance of that work entitles it to being placed on a par with the department of commerce and the department of agriculture, for example. We expect it to be done."

"We want to see a permanent women's bureau established in the department of labor. The continuance of the women employed during the war is as yet uncertain. On account of the number of women in the industries before the war, and the great increase during the war, we think this bureau should be permanent as a matter of fair treatment, who wrote it especially for Mr. Kerrigan.

The star is seen as a young Irish farm lad in the early scenes of the picture, staged in the quaint, beautiful atmosphere of Glengarry, Ireland. Then the locale shifts to New York, where a glimpse of the political system from the inside, the banking system, the police system, and the picturesque East Side form backgrounds for a thrilling plot having to do with the biggest counterfeiting scheme known in the annals of crime.

Through it all, in Ireland and in America, runs an appealing love story. Fritz Brunette, who takes the leading feminine role, has a fine part opposite the star. The little lady of dark hair and brown eyes is not only beautiful on the screen, but shows the distinctive personality and fire of histrionic genius. A capable supporting cast is seen in the remaining roles of the picture.

ST. PATRICK WAS A CIVIL ENGINEER

COLUMBIA, Mo., March 17.—Engineering students and alumni of the school of engineering of the University of Missouri today are holding their annual St. Patrick's day celebration.

The principal event of the day is the ceremony by which Dr. Charles P. Steinmetz of Schenectady, N. Y., noted inventor, will be made an honorary Knight of St. Patrick. Thirty students will be regularly knighted and in addition to Dr. Steinmetz four other persons will be made honorary knights. The knighting ceremony was preceded by a reception to former students of the school, followed by a parade.

The idea that St. Patrick was an engineer was conceived by the engineering students in 1903. This led to the annual stunt day on the birthday anniversary of their patron saint. The movement spread to the Iowa State College at Ames, to the Rolla School of Mines and to other institutions. It was decided to nationalize the organization among engineering schools, and last fall a convention was held at Columbia for this purpose. Eleven schools of the Missouri Valley met and organized under the name of the Guard of St. Patrick. The University of Missouri was selected as permanent headquarters.

VERSAILLES TREATY TOOK EFFECT AT 4:15

EXCHANGE OF RATIFICATIONS BETWEEN GERMANY AND ALLIED POWERS PUT PEACE TREATY INTO EFFECT

By the Associated Press

PARIS, Jan. 10.—The treaty of Versailles, making peace between Germany and the allied powers, was put into effect at 4:15 o'clock this afternoon by the exchange of ratifications.

Von Lersner, head of the German mission, affixed his signature to the protocol at 4:09 o'clock. The entire ceremony which took place in the Clock Hall at the French foreign ministry was completed at 4:16 o'clock.

Von Lersner, previously head of the German mission, signed the protocol of November 9 providing for liberation from indemnity for the sinking of the German warships at Scapa Flow and to insure the carrying out of the armistice terms. The signing of this document occurred in the office of the foreign ministry.

Peaceful relations between Germany and the greater number of nations engaged in the great war have been established by the action taken in Paris today. The peace treaty now goes into effect as soon as Germany and those powers that have finally ratified it, Great Britain, Italy, Japan, Belgium, Bolivia, Guatemala, Peru, Poland, France, Slovakia, Siam and Uruguay. Great Britain was the first of the five great powers represented on the supreme council of the peace conference to take such action, being followed in succession by France, Italy and Japan. The United States alone of the big five has not ratified the treaty. As the list shows, formal ratifications have been given by most of the smaller powers signatory to the treaty. China did not sign because of her objections to the Shantung provisions, but proclaimed a state of peace with Germany.

The all important ratification by Germany was given on July 9, 1919, the day following which President Wilson presented the treaty to the United States senate. The making of the peace treaty which now becomes effective, was begun shortly after the conclusion of the armistice of Nov. 11, 1918, which ended the great war. The treaty of Versailles as it has become known, was signed in the historic Versailles palace on June 28, 1919.

The long interval between the assembling of the peace conference on Jan. 18, 1919, and the signing of the treaty was occupied with daily conferences on its provisions between the representatives of the nations which had been at war with Germany or had broken relations with her.

The treaty not only defines the terms of peace with Germany, but contains the league of nations covenant and the present international labor organization. In October last a sufficient number of powers had ratified the treaty to comply with the requirements for its effectiveness. Since that time the question of the protocol and particularly the reparations provision have been under negotiations between the allied representatives and German government. It was only within the past fortnight that the situation began to clear and adjustment of the tonnage demands upon Germany being reached and the negotiations concluded the signing of the protocol.

Fooling the Undertaker.

Some people say that ringing the wrong number does not cause any trouble and some people say that it does. Dr. Gordon of East Central says that it does. And thereby hangs a tale.

The other day Major Mitchell of the regular army delivered a lecture on tooth carpentry up at the Normal auditorium, and after the lecture was very desirous of securing a jitney to transport him back to town. Always accommodating, Dr. Gordon called a certain number and told the party answering the phone call to send to the normal at once after a man.

In a remarkably short time an ambulance rushed up to the main entrance of the normal, an undertaker and his assistant jumped out, and with a stretcher in hand hurried into the doorway, eagerly asking for the man that was to be transported to town. It took long and laborious conversation on the part of the L. L. D. and the Major to convince the undertaker that he had not been willfully deceived.

So Doctor Gordon believes that getting the wrong number causes trouble.

GERMAN ARMY IS UNDER NEW ERA

PRIVATES NO LONGER HAVE TO SUBMIT TO BE PLAY- THINGS OF BOCHT OFFICERS.

By FRANK W. BOSTOCK.

BERLIN, Jan. 9.—When German soldiers and sailors turned on their officers in the revolution and destroyed some whom they hated most, there began a new era in the German army.

The German soldier no longer is the plaything of the officers. He doesn't have to serve if he doesn't want to and the spirit which he showed in revolutionary times has inscribed a respect among the officer class which they will never forget. The German officer no longer swaggers down the streets of Berlin. He doesn't push peaceful citizens, women and children off the sidewalk. He does not order his men to fire on citizens who voice their rights.

Immediately after the revolt, privates refused to salute their officers. They nodded and that was about all. But gradually the salute came back and it is given without hesitation, both by officers and men.

Germany is still a military nation. There is a heavy sprinkling of uniformed men on the streets of Berlin, more so than in any other city.

Men are not discharged from the army unless they have obtained employment or the government can give them a job.

Germans reply to charges made by the allies, that too large a military establishment is being kept up, that this is done to prevent disturbances and perhaps another revolution, in addition to the regular city police, many German cities have safety police, who dress almost identically like the regular troops.

PARIS, Jan. 10.—The putting of the League of Nations into effect, which will be one of the immediate actions of the exchanging of ratifications of the treaty of Versailles, will occur in Paris at 10:30 o'clock the morning of Friday, January 16, the Supreme Council announced today.

Naval Forces to Serve League.

LONDON, Jan. 10.—A strong appeal in favor of pulling the American and British naval forces and concentrating them to the service of the League of Nations as an instrument for banishing war from the sea will be made in the articles of the weekly of Glatfelter in the daily news tomorrow.

General Connor to Antwerp.

PARIS, Jan. 10.—Brigadier General W. D. Connor, chief of staff of the American Department of Supplies, with one hundred non-commissioned officers, the last American soldiers in France, left for Antwerp tonight.

OKLAHOMA LEADS AS TIPPING STATE

AND MUSKOGEE IS IN FRONT RANK OF CITIES FOR GEN- EROSITY, ASSERTS VETERAN.

MUSKOGEE, Jan. 10.—Oklahoma ranks first among the states for tips and Muskogee tops all the cities of this section in liberality toward the men who serve the people in public places.

That was the statement Wednesday credited to an old time waiter who began "hashing" away back in the days when the engineer called for a "tank of jaw" and a "string of flats" and who has come on down to the day of pie a la mode with the record of having worked in all the live cities of the country and should know. He brings also the report that the new hotel at Okmulgee is to be Staller operated, the holding company having arranged a lease with this famous hotel man.

Muskogee went through the holiday season nobly from the standpoint of the waiter. Many $2 tips were given during Christmas and $5 was not uncommon. Smaller gifts were innumerable. Musicians left their chairs to find on arrival at their rooms that dollar bills were concealed here and there in music rolls. Nobody who took any regular prominent part in furnishing service was overlooked.

"I haven't any way to approximate the amount of money given away here in tips during Christmas," said the veteran waiter, "but I believe it would reach thousands. Of course, I do not say that every single waiter in Muskogee received a cash tip. It may have been that new faces in strange places did not appeal to the patron and some few may have been missed. I do say, however, that everybody furnishing public service here for any stated period has been liberally tipped and continues to receive these gifts from time to time.

"Oklahoma is the most generous state in the union to public servants. Muskogee is a remarkably liberal city. Tips of the larger size come as a rule from oil men, but the business men are not far behind them.

"Tips have not ceased with the passing of the holidays. Bad weather with sleet and ice call for extra service and here the attentive employee, even to the waiter, gets in on extra pay.

"Tips from women are frequent, but more and more liberal from men because they carry the most money with them.

"The frequency and size of tips or pay for special service indicates the prosperity of the state and its cities and it further shows that the public realizes that the h. c. l. has hit the waiter and the public servant as well as the rest of the people."

Prohibition Is Subject for Talk at Big Carnival

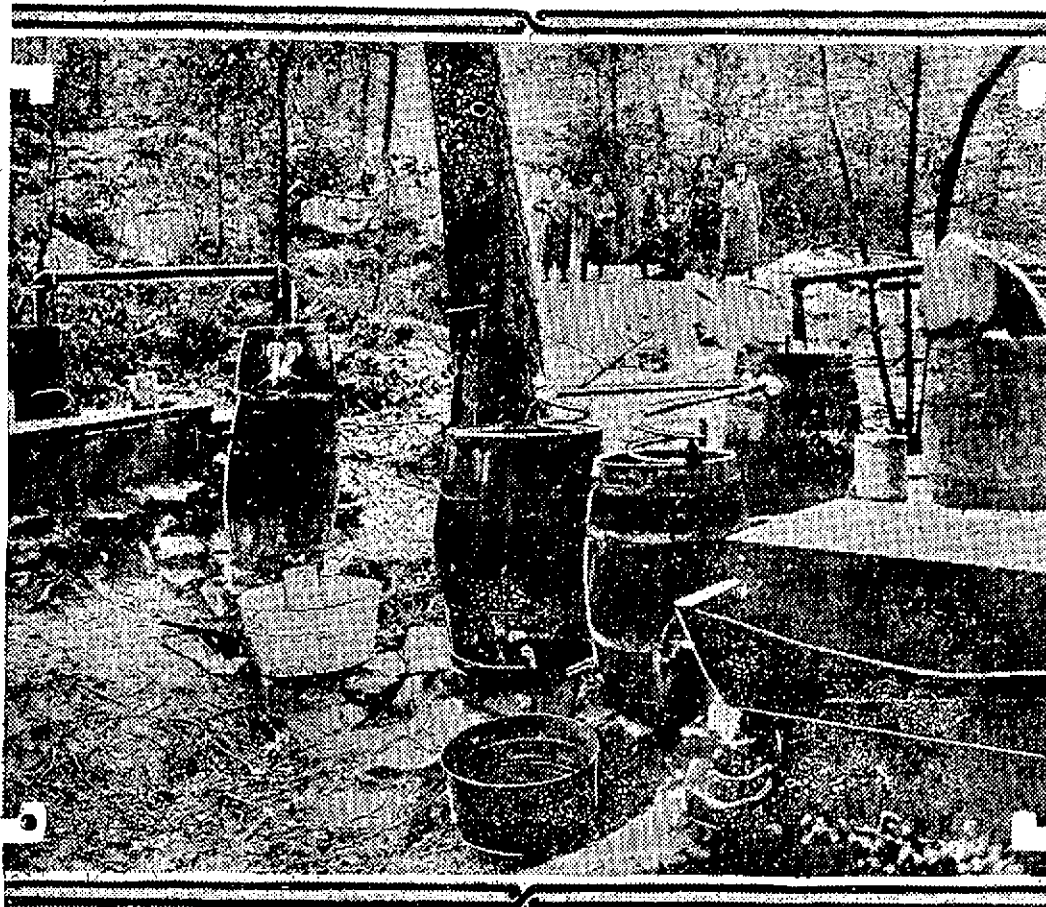

Probably the starriest of star attractions billed for next week's all-week carnival will be a debate on the prohibition question by Rev. Clyde Calhoun Morris and Marvin Brown. In the discussion of the topic the Evening News editor will take the "dry" side of the argument, while the militant pastor will champion the cause of the "wets." This is expected to be a lurid exhibition of fact and oratory, as both disputants are conceded to be masters of their respective sides of the painful question.

A seventeen-round bout for the featherweight championship of Ada is scheduled to take place sometime in the week when the moon is full. The contestants for the diamond belt will be H. B. Roach and Owen Fauntleroy. Both of whom have had brilliant careers in the squared circle. This contest is limited to seventeen rounds, in order that there may be no violation of the statute against cruelty to animals. Betting will be forbidden, but all restraints on wagering have been lifted.

A feature of first magnitude is said to be the republican convention that will be held early in the week. The convention will be held according to acquiescence of Queensbury rules. It is announced that "Snow" Cole has been selected to present the name of W. F. Schulte as a candidate for delegate to the Shawnee convention, and "Snow's" fame as a spell-binder is a sure guaranty of a high class performance.

The wholesale quantities of time, was cut off a few days ago "hooch" or illicit whiskey which when a sheriff's posse raided a still flooded Birmingham, Ala., for some in the woods in Shedgee Valley, about fourteen miles from the city, destroying the stills and fifty-eight barrels of mash.

GERMAN UPEHAVAL IS NOT CONFIRMED

REPORTS OF THE OVERTHROW OF THE GERMAN GOVERN- MENT HAVE NOT BEEN CONFIRMED.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Jan. 10.—In connection with the unconfirmed reports from Brussels of a German government overthrow, messages from Berlin through Copenhagen did not indicate that anything of an extraordinary nature had been foreseen in Germany up till a late hour tonight.

Brussels reports of a German government overthrow are not confirmed from any other source and it may be noticed that the messages themselves carry their own qualifications emphasizing the lack of positive information.

News dispatches from Germany are reaching at least 24 hours in reaching this country and the latest messages from Berlin received Friday bore Thursday's date. These messages indicated unsettled conditions of labor in the vicinity of Essen and the Ruhr industrial district but the unrest reported did not appear to be of unusual significance.

MEN'S CLOTHING IS GOING HIGHER

CLOTHING MEN IN MEETING IN NEW YORK HAVE LITTLE ENCOURAGEMENT TO OFFER.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Further increases in the price of men's clothing without much change in style were predicted today by delegates who attended the tenth annual convention of the International Association of Clothing Designers here. Labor contributes about 90 per cent to the cost of a suit, it was said.

While the supply of cloth was said to be increasing, the designers offered little hope that this would decrease the cost of cloth.

The clothiers were disinclined to believe reports from London that purple, gold and bright colors would be worn by men, and declared that conservatism, both as to the cut and fabric, would prevail in the United States and Canada.

Bank Deposits Double During the Past Year

Deposits in the banks of Ada on December 31, 1919, reached the highest total ever recorded here and an increase of 102 per cent over the same time a year ago. The figures for December 31 show that the deposits in the four banks of the city reach the imposing total of $4,517,358.98. On the same date a year ago the deposits were only $2,022,047.08. The increase in deposits for the year is thus $2,495,311.90—an increase of 102 per cent.

The total resources of the Ada banks a year ago are given as $3,167,455.85. On December 31, the total resources had increased to $5,062,123.68. This showing is a remarkable one and is a showing for Ada than can hardly be surpassed by any city in the agricultural districts of Oklahoma.

Ada Playhouses

At the Liberty.

Showing at the Liberty today is Clio Madison in the second episode of the "Great Radium Mystery," another feature on today's program is that funny blackface comedian, Bobby Burns, in a comedy, called "Sultan D. Jazz," together with one of those funny animal comedies, "Weak Minds and Wild Lions." These animal comedies are great, using a lion, bear, donkey, goat and dogs are now used in the making of comedies very successfully, doing lots of different comedy stunts and then the picture orchestra featuring the picture all the while.

The American.

Showing at this popular playhouse today are Franklin Farnum and Helen Chadwick in "Go Get 'Em, Garringer." This is a real western picture and one that you cannot afford to miss if you like the western stuff. Next Monday the American will show the first episode in a great serial entitled "The Black Secret." Pearl White, the famous star from Missouri, will play the lead in this great picture.

ARDMORE THEATER MAN RECOMMENDS ROQUEMORE

The Liberty Theater is advertising the Roquemore Musical Comedy Co. for a week's engagement here next week. This company was here last year and the people were very much pleased with their entertainments. Mr. McSwain, manager of the Liberty, this morning received the following wire from L. N. Cox, manager of the Princess at Ardmore, giving his opinion of the company:

Ardmore, Okla., Jan. 9, 1920.

Foster McSwain,
Ada, Okla.
Henry Roquemore Musical Comedy Co. is playing my theater this week to packed houses. Fine company with best collection of vaudeville features ever seen in Ardmore. They will more than please.

Regards,
L. N. COX,
Manager Princess Theatre.

MEXICAN VOLCANO STILL EMITS FLAME

EVERY VILLAGE IN THE VICIN- ITY OF THE CRATER DES- TROYED AND COUNTRY WATER SOAKED.

By the Associated Press.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 10.—Flames are still being emitted by the new volcano at San Miguel in the western part of Vera Cruz, according to advices received here last night. It is stated that volcanic dust has floated as far as 20 miles east of the new crater. Every village in that vicinity has been destroyed, while lava and floods of contaminated water are inundating the district near the crater.

Refugees from San Miguel confirm early reports telling of numerous deaths from falling buildings and poisonous gases. The rebels who have their headquarters in that region have suffered severely both from casualties and loss of supplies. First accurate reports from Coahuila were received in press dispatches from Jalapa quoting a doctor who had just returned from the former village. He said he had counted 72 dead and 100 injured there.

CHECK GIRL SUES A CHICAGO TIP TRUST

CLAIMS SHE WAS BILKED OUT OF OVER TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS IN TIPS FOR ONE YEAR.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—Miss Helen Stires, for two years a check girl in a restaurant here, in a suit filed in the superior court today sought to secure $2,425 from the "Chicago tipping trust." She alleges that she received the amount in tips in two years and was compelled to give it to the "trust." Three men are named defendants. "These men have acquired a checking concession in most hotels and cafes, said Miss Stires. They pay girls from $9 to $15 a week and compel them to drop tips in a small iron bank which is camouflaged with paper.

"I was a checker for two years and turned in more than $2,500 in that time."

Socialists Control Germany.

By the Associated Press.

BRUSSELS, Jan. 10.—Travelers from Germany, reaching here today brought unconfirmed reports that the German government had been overthrown. It was reported that the socialists were in control of the situation, and that a general strike had been declared throughout the country of all not under allied occupation.

BLAMES THE STEEL TRUST FOR ALL ILLS

ORGANIZED CAPITAL GREATER MENACE THAN ORGANIZED LABOR, SAYS ASSISTANT PROSECUTOR.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 9.—"Organized capital is a greater menace to this country than is organized labor. I believe that the United States Steel corporation is the father of the economic ills from which we are suffering today. John L. Lewis and William Green I consider better citizens than Elbert H. Gary."

That is the belligerent attitude taken by C. B. Ames, assistant to the United States attorney general, last night in speaking on the economic problems before the country to 500 men at the Chamber of Commerce.

Ames was in charge of the fight which resulted in the end of the coal miners' strike and is in charge of the suit for the dissolution of the United States Steel corporation.

"Public Must Assert Rights." "Innocent bystanders have stood by too long and they should now take capital and labor by the neck and make them settle their differences fairly without so much inconvenience to the public," Ames said.

"Labor is fighting for what it believes to be right while capital is fighting for power. Organized capital today is a worse menace than organized labor. J. L. Lewis and William Green, officials of the United Mine Workers, are better citizens than E. H. Gary of the United States Steel corporation. It is not the open fights of labor, but the secret scheming of capital, (Continued on Page Eight.)

Officers Stage Biggest Raid In Several Years

Local officers pulled off the biggest raid of several seasons in Darktown yesterday afternoon and breaking into a highly developed game of chance arrested a large and goodly audience of white and colored gentlemen. The officers' cars were loaded with calaboose-bound prisoners, while the number left to walk in resembled Coxe's army as they goose-stepped down Broadway to the city hall. The color scheme was carried out (so it is reported) the white prisoners riding in Ford cars, while the colored contingent tracked it thru the snow.

Three of the prisoners entered their plea of guilty in mayor's court immediately. The other sixteen appeared in open court this morning and paid up on guilty pleas. Those pleading guilty yesterday and today were Isaac Thomas, Goldsby Perry, Levi Morgan, Sam McKay, Forest Lewis, Jess Rivers, Will Freelon, Claude Shepard, Lorenzo Johnson, George Owens, Luther Cross, O. L. Crane, Ira Scott, Ed Price, K. Jeter, H. Robertson, Roy Tate, R. E. Miller and Henry Sweeney. Seven of the number were white and twelve otherwise.

FROM VICTORY TO VIOLENCE.

A year ago the nation was rejoicing in the conclusion of the greatest event in her history and it seemed that Peace everlasting would be the efforts of her mobilized millions. The horrors of war were ended and a happy future seemed assured. The menace of the sinister Hun had been removed and America was free to enjoy her immense possibilities. A year has passed and thus far the country has only emerged from Victory to Violence; from conquest to chaos; Sacrifice to Strike; and the Rule of Reason is supplanted by Riot and Revolution. If the future years are to be measured by 1919, we have lost the war. Would Hindenberg and Ludendorff do less evil to the country than Lewis and Foster? Our troubles are many and multiplying, but they are not all of foreign origin. Not all of them can be traced to German propaganda, nor to the later Russian Bolshevism. The base is pure American, concerning lineage. The founder of the discontent of today, the sower of the seed was the political demagogue of yesterday, whose chief pride was in being "rabble rouser." We are paying today for fifteen years' of previous political pandering and the "Crown of Thorns" of the brow of Labor" was the start of it all.—The Employer.

The World's Great Literary Bibles

Books That Came Out of the Hearts and Minds of the People for Their Authors Were Only Spokesmen—Human Books That Take Firm Hold on Human Life—Broad-Minded Books Whose Authors Saw Life Steadily and Saw It Whole.

HOME READING COURSE NO. 1

(A certificate, bearing the seal of the United States Bureau of Education, signed by the Commissioner of Education, will be awarded to each person who gives satisfactory evidence of having read all the books in the accompanying list. You are invited to join the great national reading circle, making your own selection from the reading courses provided.)

AMONG the books of the world a few are so preminent for content and style that they have been called "The Literary Bibles." These are the Iliad and the Odyssey of Homer, the Divine Comedy of Dante, the greater dramas of Shakespeare, and Goethe's Faust. Each of these is the embodiment and revelation of the ideals of a race, an age, or a civilization.

They came out of the hearts and minds of the people for whom their authors were only spokesmen. They are therefore simple, fundamental, and comprehensive. They appeal to the hearts and grip the minds of all people everywhere, young and old, learned and unlearned, of whatever race or creed. They are human books and take firm hold on the human life which we all live, which few understand, but which in all its phases has "interest without end."

They are broad-minded books. Their authors saw life steadily and saw it whole. Kings and priests to God and humanity, they interpreted for man the eternal mysteries. Prophetic men they stood on the mountain tops and caught the glow of the over-dawning new day. Finely organized men, they felt the heart throb and pulse beat of the human race; they understood the hopes and fears and aspirations of humanity better than most, and they have set these to the music of rhythmic winged words.

These books should be read by all who would know the world's literature and life. The United States Bureau of Education has therefore chosen them for its first course in reading, and invites all young men and women to join this, its first national reading circle, the members of which will undertake to read each of these books, at least twice within the next three years from the time of joining the circle.

To each person who gives satisfactory evidence of having read twice all the books on the list a certificate will be awarded bearing the seal of the United States Bureau of Education and signed by the Commissioner of Education. All young men and women who want to know the best there is in the literature of the world and to gain the inspiration it gives are invited to join this national reading circle, and it is hoped that many thousands will do so.

Charles Alphonso Smith, professor of English in the University of Virginia; Charles Forster Smith, professor of Greek in the University of Wisconsin; Richard Burton, professor of English literature in Yale University, have assisted the Bureau of Education in directing this course of reading.

In writing about this course referred to it as "United States Bureau of Education, Home Education Division, Reading Course No. 1," or "The World's Great Literary Bibles."

Communications should be addressed to Home Education Division, Bureau of Education, Washington, D. C. Miss Ellen C. Lombard is director of the Home Education Division.

SWEETS IMPERIL BEAUTY OF GIRLS SAYS A PHYSICIAN

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—"Unless the young women of this generation stop 'guzzling' sweets, pastries and fatty foods, unless they lop off their high heels and wear foot-fitting shoes, and unless they cease inhaling cigarettes and paint plastering their faces, the next generation of babies is going to be afflicted with un-beautiful mammas," Dr. Eugene Lyman Fisk warned Thursday night.

Dr. Fisk, head of the Life Extension Institute and co-author with Professor Irving Fisher of Yale of "How to Live," is a lover of the beautiful as well as health expert. He is launching a drive by the institute to "make the American woman the loveliest in the world."

He believes an educational campaign will do wonders for this "un-heeding generation," and he is basing his ideals of womanly beauty upon Grecian proportions as manifested in statues carved by the ancients.

"Women are longer lived than men in any case," said Dr. Fisk. "Beauty is their chief ambition. I believe the woman who neglects to cultivate her health by a health regime is not doing her duty to the state. It is her mission to be beautiful.

"Once a woman is physically fit, she must be powerfully ugly if she fails to radiate charm, magnetism. If she is too fat she has not achieved beauty. She must diet and exercise. If she is too thin, she needs rest and sleep and proper food. And above all things, women of this generation must watch themselves as they approach 30, the danger age. It is then that she begins to retrograde.

"In the cities," said Dr. Fisk, "women on the average reach the age of 61. Men, figuring on the medium basis, die at the age of 56. In the rural districts women live to be 68; men to be 66. We account for it by the fact that men are more open to various infections, live harder and take less care of themselves.

"Both sexes reach the high peak of vitality at about 21 and 30 is the age when vitality begins to drop. It is astonishing to see men of 35 or 40 seemingly sturdier, handsomer, than they were at 25 or 30, while women past the 30 mark evince clearly in face and form the wear of time. Flat feet, bad teeth, short wind and general run-down health are curses upon both sexes. Should there be a war draft for women as there was for men, the figures would prove just as many physical defectives among the women.

"It is true that there have been women who have been declared greater beauties at 35 and even 40 than they were in their early twenties. But these women, like the lovely Sappho of old Greece, are and have been professional beauties. A woman ceases to be lovely when she begins to increase her waist line, and this warning applies to both sexes.

"If you want to keep alive, keep your waist line.
"The lightweights live the longest; lean greyhound type of humanity has the best chance of fooling Daddy Time."

District No. 3 with Mrs. Duncan and District No. 4 with Mrs. Emory. Everyone is urged to attend her district meeting Monday that we may start the new year with a large attendance and lay large plans for work throughout the year.—Mrs. R. E. L. Ford, President.

First Baptist Church.
Last Sunday we had 404 in Sunday School. This was pretty good considering the fact that a great many of our people had gone home for the holidays. We hope to go back to 450 tomorrow and can do so provided all the old attendants come back. We will expect to see you on hand promptly at 9:45.
The morning hour for worship will be taken up with hearing reports from the heads of the various organizations within the church. These reports will be very interesting and it will be worth your while to be present. We will also have talks by the different new officials and by the pastor.
The Sunbeams will meet at 2:30 with Mrs. Harry Morris in charge.

The two Juniors will meet at 4:30 with Mrs. C. C. Morris and Miss Lena Ragsdale in charge of No. 1, and Mrs. Dr. Webster in charge of No. 2.
The Senior B. Y. P. U. will meet at 6:15. All the members are urged to be present and bring someone with you.
The night service will begin at 7:30. The pastor will preach along evangelistic lines. Prof. Fentem will be in charge of all music at both services.
The public is cordially invited to any and all these services.—Glyde Calhoun Morris, Pastor.

Christian Church.
The Bible School meets every Sunday morning at 9:45. A live school. "Come and see."

Morning worship begins promptly at eleven o'clock. Prof. Perkins of the college will speak Sunday morning. Prof. Perkins has just been to a great meeting at Des Moines, Iowa, and will speak on the theme, "Mountain peaks on which B stood at Des Moines." This promises to be a very interesting message. Every member of the church ought to be present. Students of the college, high school students and all others are most cordially welcome.
The Junior Endeavor will meet at four o'clock.
The Intermediate Endeavor will meet at five o'clock.
The Senior Endeavor will meet at six o'clock.

Evening worship will open at seven o'clock. A male quartet will sing. The minister will preach the second one of his sermons on Revelation. His theme will be "The Seven Spirits of God." Rail Unions to Co-operate in the Battle on H. C. L.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Organized railway employees have started on the other end of the line in an effort to solve the problem of the high cost of living, unable to obtain relief through additional wage increases which one of the chiefs said were invariably followed by increases in living cost, the four big railroad brotherhoods and the affiliated railway shop crafts have adopted a scheme to escape the profits of the middleman by a system of co-operative buying, production and distribution of the necessities of life.

Plans for the co-operative movement were laid at the farmer-labor conference at Chicago in November and, although they are yet in a ten-

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful."

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night. I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieve me until I took Cardui.

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. I decided I would try Cardui. By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well. If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may be just what you need. Thousands of women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial. NC-133 tative stage, a definite course of action is expected to be adopted at a second conference called for February 12-15 at Chicago.

The proposal calls for an alliance between farmers and laborers to create direct dealing between farm producers and between city producers and farm consumers.

The plan is being worked out by the all-American farm labor co-operative commission, which was formed after the November meeting in Chicago, and it includes the erection of warehouses as distributing centers; and the organization of a co-operative bank.

This latest move on the part of the railway organization was taken in some quarters to indicate that the railway men would slacken their pressure on the railroad administration for increased pay.

ASSESSORS WANT TAX COMMISSION

Tax assessors of Oklahoma, meeting in Oklahoma City Wednesday, passed a resolution urging the next legislature to create a tax commission to serve in place of the present state board of equalization.

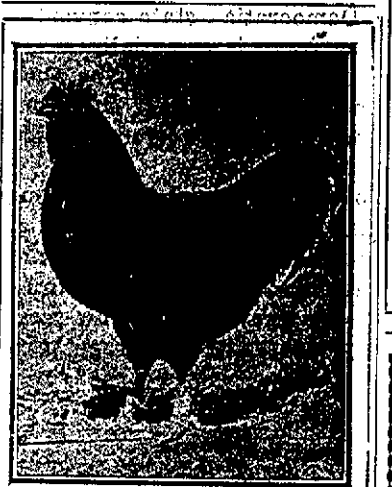

The state's tax system is described as "chaotic and inequitable" in the resolution, which declares "for a commission of three members to be named for two, four and six-year terms, so that two members of the board will always be experienced."

The resolution states that the assessors have no criticism to make of the state board of equalization, but it points out that the present board is composed of state officials, many of whom are ineligible to succeed themselves. The board is, therefore, composed of men who are new to tax questions.

The assessors formed a permanent organization, to be known as the Assessors Association of Oklahoma. George W. Hine of Newkirk, Kay county, was chosen president, and Dan D. Harley of Muskogee, secretary-treasurer.

The assessors also declared for a four-year term on the ground that the work is such that an assessor cannot attain to his best efficiency on a two-year term.

"THE FREEDOM OF THE SHE'S."

On Saturday, January 17, this week or next, Pontotoc County will see its first living demonstration of the freedom of the she's. On that day and date some dozens or hundreds of lately enfranchised women will assemble in the city of Ada to make public profession of faith in Jeffersonian Democracy and elect sundry delegates to a big—Democratic—state convention at Oklahoma City. If woman's suffrage is essentially a failure (as its enemies have always claimed) there will be about a baker's dozen attendants at the county meet. If equal suffrage is a success (as its friends have always averred) the hall of meeting will contain standing room only.

If this approaching meeting of the clans was for men only and it the first convention men had ever been permitted to attend, the attendance would be counted by acres. But after all the fire and tow of an equal suffrage battle running thru a fiery decade of state history no one knows today how many women in Pontotoc County really wanted the suffrage privilege and are now willing to exercise it. Not very many who opposed equal suffrage will display sufficient interest to attend a mid-winter political convention. But it would be passing strange if those who have petitioned for suffrage and fought for it all these years should fail to show their faith by embracing the first opportunity of showing their appreciation of the privilege conferred on them by the one-sided electorate of Oklahoma.

We shall see what we shall see. If the weather is bad and the roads impassable, a larger attendance than that at the Republican County convention of last Thursday should not be expected. But if the weather is reasonably fair and the roads at all passable, a large and interested attendance should mark the first exclusively women's political convention ever held in Pontotoc County.

Ninety-nine per cent of that Jackson Day story about a split between Wilson and Bryan is pure bunc. There is no more split between the two than there is between Wilson and Berger. How can two men who have not been together in five years pull off a split? The so-called split did not occur on Jackson Day. It occurred several years ago when Wilson began to demand protection for American citizens sailing the open seas. It began when Wilson first called the hand of Germany. It began when a secretary of state refused to back his government in the gravest crisis it ever faced. It is the same old moss grown separation that antedates the war. Nor will Wilson feel any ill effect from the Bryan pronouncement. He led this nation thru the narrow way of war without Bryan's good will or assistance and he can comfortably close his administration despite Bryan's enmity.

Whenever the people of Oklahoma want good roads they will get them. Under the form of government we enjoy the people can get any public improvement they want. The fact that we have no roads of a permanent nature proves that we really do not want them. If we did want them, we would get them. It takes money to build permanent roads. The people have to furnish the money. When the people are ready to admit that money is essential and that the public must furnish the money, and decide that we must have roads, then we will get them. But-not-till-then.

Some of the press reports have it that the reason Jake Hamon walked off with the delegates at the Republican county conventions last Thursday was that the weather was so bad that the McGraw men were kept at home.

Of course the Dempsey-Carpentier fight staged for the Fourth of July just over the California line in Mexico had nothing to do with the selection of San Francisco as the Democratic convention city on June 28.

The New York Times in defending the United States senate declares in a column editorial that the senate is just as good now as it ever was.

If the party with a grouch is logical it will nominate the candidate with a grouch and Leonard Wood will be the nominee of the Chicago convention.

We are having entirely too many bank robberies in Oklahoma. The authorities should round up the robbers and deport them.

Ministers Not All Agreed on Matter of Badger Fighting

Verily, it takes all kinds of people to make a world. That there is difference in opinion among ministers of the gospel is also evident. This morning one of the local ministers of the city was in with a protest against badger fighting as a sport, classing the diversion with the cock and bull fights staged in Mexico and other parts of that character. Not more than an hour later this communication was followed by another, from a minister of a different denomination, endorsing the badger fight as good sport and recommending it to all lovers of real fun. The ministers preferred that their names be not used in the articles. The letters follow:

A Protest.

Editor News: I wish to add my voice of protest to the editorial of yesterday, inveighing against such degrading sport as took place in the city hall Thursday evening. Does public sentiment support such sport? Then we are little better than the people of Mexico who glory in the bull fight. What difference is there between a bull fight and a fight between a dog and a badger, without taking into account the breed of the dog. It is a low type of sport, and degrading to morals. Prize fighting has been banished from the United States, and cock fighting has been ruled out in all civilized communities. Why then should such sport as this be allowed in Ada? Will such reports as appeared in yesterday's paper appeal to people of high ideals to come to Ada? It is especially deplorable that this took place in the city hall, for it looks as if the city is placing its stamp of approval on such unworthy sport. As a citizen of Ada, I enter my protest. The city hall is part mine. It belongs to all the citizens of Ada. Are we going to allow it to be used for such purposes? Such things will hinder the material progress of our city, to say nothing of its moral progress. Let us raise the standards; at any rate let us not let them be lowered beneath the present ones.—Pastor.

The Badger Fight.

Editor News: I read with a great deal of chagrin your article in yesterday's paper condemning badger fights. I do not want to be guilty of sanctioning anything that would be wrong, and would not do so for my right arm, knowingly, and yet I cannot see any material harm in having a little fun, provided it is clean fun. I have seen badger fights and I am for them. I guess there is a little of the savage in me and perhaps I ought to try and overcome this weakness, but there is something within my makeup that likes a fight, especially a badger fight.

So, Mr. Editor, I am again taking issue with you. I do not want to appear always as an everlasting old grouch, but I did not want to let your editorial of yesterday go unchallenged. I think we ministers should always give our hearty endorsement to amusement of this nature. I think I know Mr. Scott Tucker, the gentleman who pulled the badger out, and I also know many of the other gentlemen present, and I believe them to be men of the highest standing in the community. I am frank to say that had I known of the fight, I would have been present also. Cordially yours, Pastor.

I here tell they is going to be a carnival next week in this here town an thet thet proceeds, earnings or extracurriculars is goin to be give to the commercial club to be spent for the general betterment of Ada.

Now Ed, I like the way this money is goin to be raised. I am shore glad them folks what needed the money, the same bein the C. C., didn't start no drive. I bin driv so much I feel now like a army mule and at 1 and the same time am standin on the brink of the abcess of poverty.

But Ed, in this here carnival they ain't to be no drive. Everybody is allowed to come to it and fer ever jlt he parts from he gits value received, soda speak. He can spend jest as little or jest as much as he darn please all dependin on whether he is there with his wife or his best girl.

And look what you are gittin fer your money, Ed. There's Bill Coffman what dives offen thet 20 ft. ladder into a spoonful of water and immediately after chaugin his thoroely wet clothes appears agin as a little fairy dancer, and jumpin jupiter, how he can do that there shimmy. You know, Ed, he has got a reputashun fer shakin a mighty wicked lapel.

Then I understan they got a sene showin the last days of Pompey. But Ed, I don't know whether I will like thet one or not cause if that bird was very sick durin his last days I reckon most folks wouldn't want to be a lookin on in his misery. But immediately after this act Jim Coleman and Scott Tucker is goin to stage the only and original badger fite showin there own personal experiences in thet cruel sport what comes only 2nd to Mexican bull fites fer hair-raisin excitement.

But what I started out to say all the time was that this here show is all ourn and ever cent spent is agoin to some good cause in this town and there ain't no outsider gettin a cent of it. Everybody what attends is goin to git his money's worth and go away thoroely satisfied sayin to hisself thet he will be thar ever nite.

Hopin thet you will do the same.

Yours trullie,
JOSH.

Normal Graduate Married.
Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Susan Black to Mr. William F. Gray, which happy event occurred at Woodward, Oklahoma, January 1.

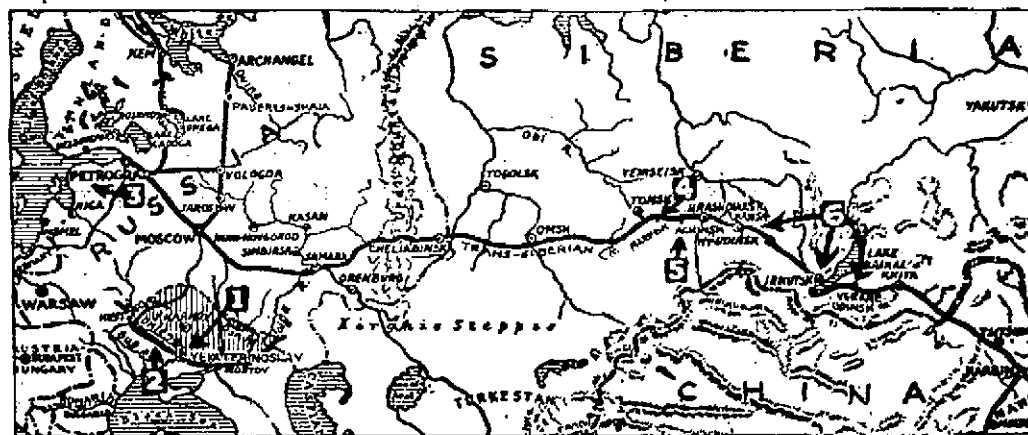

Miss Black is a graduate of East Central Normal of the class of 1917 and is a young woman of admirable traits of character. She was quite popular as a student and made a splendid record in the Normal. Most of her elective work was done in the department of home economics. The fact that she did exceedingly good work in this line is shown by her being selected as home demonstration agent for Woodward county. She held this position at the time of her marriage.

The young man to whom she was married is not known among Miss Black's friends in Ada. However, all are agreed that if Miss Black made as good choice for a life partner as Mr. Gray did, the union should be a very happy and successful one.

Thursday "500."
Mrs. I. M. King entertained the 500 Club at her beautiful suburban home New Year's day. Mrs. Parker of Kansas City made high score. Mrs. King was assisted by Mesdames Thornton, Bolen and Coffman in serving a delightful two-course luncheon. The guests of the afternoon were Mesdames Parker, Simpson, Ebey, Cain, Blanton, Ebey, Parker, Case, Cummings, Bayless, Boggan, King, Barney, Hunter, Johnston, Lassater, Wilson, Anderson, Simpson, McKelvey, Thornton, Bolen and Coffman.

HOW THE NEW YEAR FINDS THE SITUATION IN RUSSIA

Main points figuring in recent developments in Russia and Siberia are indicated by figures.

- 1—The Bolshevik report the capture of Yekaterinoslav, in south Russia.
- 2—The Reds are pounding at Tcherkassy, on the Dnieper below Kiev.
- 3—A seven days' armistice has been declared on the Estonian front.
- 4—The Bolshevik report the capture of Marminsk, east of Tomsk.
- 5—Admiral Kolchak is reported to be at Achinsk, the next town east of Marminsk.
- 6—Irkutsk is under martial law. The Reds captured the railway station, but the Kolchak forces are still in the town.

East Fifteenth street, Mrs. R. B. Haynes entertained the officers and teachers of her department with a buffet luncheon.

At 6 o'clock the guests were ushered into the dining room, which was beautifully decorated with pot ferns and cut flowers. The centerpiece consisted of pink and white carnations. The place cards were suitably hand-painted in jonquills, and contained our motto for the coming year: 2 Timothy, 2:15—"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

The talk of the evening consisted of suggestions and plans for the coming year's work, and many while partaking of the hospitality of this charming hostess, made good resolutions for the present new year.

The moments passed rapidly and the party was dismissed at 10 o'clock with the appropriate and sweet old hymn, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," played on the Edison, the guests singing the chorus. The closing invocation was led by Mrs. McKoy.

Mrs. Haynes has certainly made a fine record as superintendent of the Juniors, having served for eight and one-half years, and been absent less than a dozen times—and then only when she was sick or out of town.

Bring the little folks to Sunday School tomorrow at First Baptist. The building will be nice and warm. It.

TORRY COSTUME OF WHITE SATIN FOR SOUTHERN RESORTS

Simplicity and richness of fabric make this sporting outfit of white satin irresistible. The straight skirt has inserts of strawberry satin, banded with three strips of white. The blouse has a soft pleated bosom with pleating for collar and cuffs. The chic little hat is bright green duvetyne embroidered in self-color.

NEW BLOUSES NOW CLAIM ATTENTION

Many shops are already showing advance displays of new spring blouses. Here is a dainty one of flesh colored crepe de chine with a frilled edging at the collar and cuffs and inserts of real rice lace. It is suitable for wear with the silk sports skirt for southern travel or with the new spring suit.

Notice to Legionnaires.

The regular meeting which falls on next Monday night, will be postponed until the following Monday night, January 19, at 7:30 o'clock, on account of the carnival which will be held in the city hall all next week.

All the members are urged to be out at the next meeting as a good rousing meeting is expected on account of some of the things taking place now are to be discussed.—Chas. Orr, post commander; Attest Zeke West, secretary.

Endurance Test.

Two brothers, seven and nine, were quarreling daily, and it seemed that the little one always commenced the fuss, and always got the worst of it and then cried over it. When asked why he started things when he knew he would get hurt, the little fellow replied: "Well, I made up my mind a long time ago that some day I was going to be big enough to whip brother, and how am I going to know when I am if I don't try it every day to see?"

JANUARY WHITE SALE

Begins Monday Morning and many rare bargains will be offered in things white.

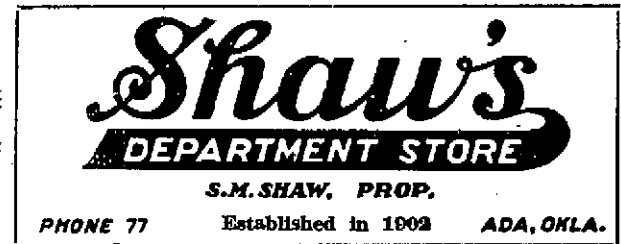

We will make this the most wonderful White Sale in the history of our business.

In a large sense a White Sale in January can justify itself only on the grounds of economy. We were fortunate enough to get our orders placed for white goods early in 1919, long before the heavy advances took effect and this means we are able to give our friends and customers the advantage of the undermarket values and very substantial saving in prices.

Don't fail to be on hand Monday morning and get first choice.

Professional Printers---

There is as much difference in printing as there is in human beings. Printing is a profession, and a good job of printing can come only from those who know, by experience and training, what it takes to constitute a high class piece of art.

Printing is no longer looked upon simply as a combination of letters and sentences. PRINTING IS AN ART, just as much so as painting. No two jobs of printing are exactly alike, because the human element is involved.

The News Printery has collected a bunch of artists to handle the commercial printing. These men know what appeals to the man of education and training. They know color work, the combination of type faces. This knowledge is at your service. Can you afford to do without it? You would not buy unmusical music. Why buy inartistic printing?

YE TOWN GOSSIP

ACCORDING TO authentic information, FROM RELIABLE sources, IT HAPPENED last night, AND WHEN Charley Hardin, WENT TO bed, IN THE cold, AND HAD covered himself, WITH EVERYTHING, THAT HE could find, HE LOOKED over, TOWARD THE crib, WHERE HIS young son, WAS PEACEFULLY reposing, AND HE said: "BOY, IF you love your daddy, "DON'T HOLLER this night, "AND DON'T make him get up," AND HE went to sleep, AND ABOUT three o'clock, WHEN IT was coldest, CHARLEY WAS awakened, BY A few lusty yells, AND HE hesitated, FOR A few minutes, BEFORE GETTING up, AND FINALLY, AS THE yells continued, HE COULDN'T stand it, AND HE got up, AND TOOK up his son, AND WALKED the floor, IN HIS bare feet, AND THE kid, WOULDN'T QUIT hollering, AND AS Charley, PASSED A window, ON THE twenty-ninth lap, THE KID caught a glimpse, OF THE moon, AND HE hollered: "WOW-OW-OW-OWWWW!" "WANNA SEE the moon," AND BY that time, CHARLEY WAS getting, RATHER PEEVED, AND HE yanked up the shade, AND SAID: "THERE, DOG-gone it! NOW LOOK at the moon!" AND THE kid, WAS QUIET for a few seconds, AND THEN it started off again, "BAH-AH-AH-AH-AH!" AND CHARLEY yelled, "WHAT'S THE matter now?" AND HIS brilliant son, MADE THE reply, "WOW-OW-OW-OWWWW!" "I WANNA see, "THE OTHER side, "OF THE moon!" AND WHAT Charley said, AFTER THAT, MUST REMAIN a secret, I THANK you.

HAS BASEBALL FORTUNE DAWNED AT LAST FOR JIM THORPE? THIS SEASON'LL TELL

Jim Thorpe as the college world knew him in track athletics and football togs, and when he broke in to big leagues with the Giants.

By N. E. BROWN.

The recent arrangement whereby the National league waived all claim on Jim Thorpe so that the Braves might release him to the Akron International league club is of more than passing interest.

There looms the possibility that the great Indian athlete is about to achieve the fame which has long eluded him in baseball, as a result of the change.

Thorpe entered the big leagues at the close of his college career. If you'll recall, Thorpe had set the athletic world on fire with his prowess as an all-round athlete at Carlisle. He was the idol of thousands. He had grown accustomed to performing in the limelight—under the admiring gaze of the crowds. It may be that this stimulus became a necessary part of the conditions surrounding him.

At any rate, when the New York Giants signed him up, fans gave him due credit for being a great athlete, but they were critical. "Will he make good as a big league ball player?" was the question they paid to see answered. Jim showed a terrible weakness in "bitting" curved balls. Consequently he failed to shine at bat. The Giants had a great outfield when he came, so there was no room for him so long as he could not hit. He soon found himself sitting on the bench—with the plaudits of the multitudes going over his head to the ears of some other player.

Now don't get the idea that Thorpe thereupon sulked, growled, threatened to take his dolls and go home or did any such thing. He stuck to his new work with typical Indian grimness. He listened to every word of advice McGraw and the other Giants gave him. If he hadn't plugged hard he would never have stayed in the big leagues.

But with all his plugging he failed to develop into the star McGraw hoped he would be. Believing that a chance with another club where he could play regularly might help him, McGraw allowed Jim to go to the Braves. But there, too he failed to get going.

At the close of the baseball season Thorpe went back to his own football. Canton, O., professional football promoters for the past few seasons have paid him big money to lead their team. Though leading a rival team each fall, Thorpe has become immensely popular in Akron, as well as in Canton. Akron fans tried to wean him away from Canton for their football team, but couldn't. When the backers of the new International league club in Akron announced that they had signed Thorpe to play right field the fans went dippy.

Apparently the stage is set to

MUSHROOM SAILOR FOR SOUTHERN-WEAR

This flirtatious mushroom sailor gives indications of a romantic year. The hat comes down far enough to allow the eyes to peep out in bewitching fashion.

Rough novelty straw banded in grosgrain ribbon is made up in all colors to suit both blondes and brunettes as well as the betwixt and between. This one is developed in the ever popular white.

Thorpe's liking. The fans will be pulling for him from the start of the first game. If Thorpe gets away good—finds the ball for a couple of husky hits in the first game or pulls off the fielding play of the contest, the fans will go plumb nutty and Thorpe will be the lion of the hour. He'll be back in his old sphere. The old stimulus will be there.

If this all happens—and it is psychologically and physically possible, it will write another interesting chapter in Jim Thorpe's career.

Uncle Sam's Promises.

We read in the Dallas News some time ago where the government was going to pension mothers who were poor in order to encourage people to raise children. The government realizes the grave situation that confronts us on account of race suicide. And we believe that this will finally become a law.

A very small woman with a tiny baby in her arms, three weeks old, was walking the frozen streets of Ada yesterday looking for work, but she is really not able to work.

The doors of the Day Nursery are never closed against any one young or old who needs assistance. This mother and babe can be seen at this home. They are badly in need of clothes, of course we all have to have food but we will manage that, but would certainly be thankful if some one will send some clothes for mother and babe. ANNIE PARKS.

Pretty Vagaries of Millinery

Millinery for midwinter is like autumn leaves—the most colorful and brilliant of all the year's pageantry. Designers give free rein to fancy when the time comes to grace the heads of fair women for the gayeties of holiday times and all that the midwinter season brings in the way of entertainment. This year they are reveling in the most gorgeous materials, gold and silver tissues and laces, mock jewels, beads, spangles, brocades, embroideries—everything rich and splendid that they can lay hands on. The eternal feminine has not changed since Tennyson sang "the splendor dear to women." But this brilliant effort is the swan song of winter millinery—after it, and already edging in with it, come the plain and simple demiseason hats; the prelude to spring styles—due to make an early appearance for the benefit of great numbers of southern tourists. Who but a designer of millinery could ever think of interpreting the owl cooie hat in fine lace? But the designer's judgment is vindicated, for the hat at the top of the group shown above, is a fascinating vagary of millinery. Chantilly lace draped over a satin-covered shape shows a little bunch of grapes and a rose, posed with all the assurance in the world, at the top—where the queen of flowers has a right to be. The rose needs this prominent position to be seen at all—for what observer will be able to get beyond a pair of eyes that must be looked into behind a veil of lace?

Gold cloth with applique of figures in black silk cord makes the rich hat, at the left of the group. It suggests the Orient, too, with its odd, flat tassels of feathers that fall like a fringe at the side, and it belongs in the company it appears in, being of the same character as the cooie hat.

Even street hats reflect the gorgeousness of the mode. The narrow-brimmed sailor at the right of satin has a rich-looking band of silver braid about the crown and a silver-gray veil that lures our thoughts to veiled ladies in far lands, even with a pair of frank American eyes behind it.

A Growing Bank in a Growing Town

Money in Hogs--

That money can be made here in the breeding of good hogs has been proved by numerous examples. Knowing this fact and also knowing that it is up to the boys of today to make the men of tomorrow, this bank is arranging to place

30 REGISTERED GILTS WITH THE BOYS OF THIS COUNTY

Only Duroc-Jersey and Poland-Chinas considered.

Any boy who wants to get one of these hogs and actually begin breeding can do so. No money is required. Come in and talk over the matter with us. These rules, in the main, will govern:

1. Nothing but the boy's note is needed for security.
2. Parent or guardian should accompany the boy to the bank to assure us that the hog will be taken care of. We do not want the parent's or guardian's financial assistance. This is a deal between "us boys."
3. All gilts must be bred only to registered males.

This is only a beginning of the great schemes of co-operation between this bank and the men, women and children of this county.

Prisoners Play
Roughhouse With
Bolshevik Crowd

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—Alarmed because a number of "reds" appeared for hearing yesterday with cracked heads, black eyes and lacerated noses, federal agents started an investigation and learned that a battle royal had taken place Sunday between "respectable" prisoners in the city jail and the incoming "reds." News of the fighting, which almost approached a riot, was suppressed by the jail authorities and federal officials only learned of it today.

"Reds" were pouring into the jail all day Sunday as a result of raids. John Russo, described as "one tough wop," and a number of his companions who are "in" on burglary charges, resented having to associate with the "reds" according to prisoners' stories. Russo led the attack and himself knocked down fifteen "reds" before perspiring guards could get him off of them. Nearly 100 of the "reds" are said to have been beaten severely.

The city prisoners were taken to Bridewell and put in solitary confinement because of the attack.

BLAMES THE STEEL
TRUST FOR ALL ILLS

ists which is endangering the country.

Steel Corporation Assailed.

"The United States Steel corporation is the father of most of the ills with which the country is afflicted today. It introduced watered stock to the nation and inflicted high prices upon the people to pay dividends. Can you wonder that employees working in the steel factories twelve hours a day and seven days a week should strike for a greater portion of the $1,300,000,000 spoils accumulated by that corporation while our boys were fighting the Huns and the people at home were practicing hard economy in order to buy Liberty bonds and War Savings stamps?"

"Government control scored a great victory in the recent mine strike. The strike was called in violation of law and at a time when it would have wrecked every industry in the United States had not the government stepped in for the good of the public. President Wilson told the officials if the men would return to work he would appoint a committee to investigate their claims, but not until then. The long period of wrangling on the part of the officials got them nothing and there was not a compromise but a full acceptance of the government's terms when the officials saw the prison staring them in the face.

Miners Live Up to Agreement.

"When they finally agreed to the government demands, to their credit be it said that they lived up to their agreement. It remains to be seen if the operators are to do as well. Contrary to the opinion of some of the miners, the government was not taking the side of the operators. Its only motive was to produce coal and save the people of the country from suffering and the other industries from ruin. Some of the operators sought to take advantage of the opportunity to destroy the mine unions while this was being done. But the government was not in conspiracy with the operators to tie the hands of labor and let capital fight it unrestrained, for organized labor has rendered a service to the country.

"The trouble with labor today comes from Russian sources, and there is money from Lenin and Trotsky to foster agitation, cause strikes seek general strikes, and eventually bring about an armed conflict between capital and labor, with the assassination of government officials and the overthrow of all government as its objective.

Foreign Language Papers Denounced.

"There are more than 200 foreign-language newspapers printed in the United States, virtually all of which spread dangerous propaganda for the overthrow of the government. New York papers have been translated to show the cult of the anarchist in America. He views government and religion as two common enemies and seeks to destroy private ownership of all sorts.

"Experts have been engaged by the department of justice and all such papers are to be handled vigorously. When the extremists and bolsheviks are banished from the shores, there will not be so much trouble with labor unions.

"Many of the troubles confronting the country today are the direct results of the war, and prices are high because of lack of production does not explain all the prices. About 500 commodities were under government control during the war, while about 500 others were not.

"You Can't Rob Me."

"Those commodities not under government control averaged about 35 per cent higher in price than the ones controlled, and immediately the control was lifted, after the signing of the armistice, all prices began bounding skyward regardless of the fact that the war was over. Profiteering is the reason for much of the present high cost of living. The cost of producing crude oil has not increased since last April sufficiently to justify an advance in price from $1.40 to $5, but the large demands created a shortage and the price went up with a financial harvest to the oil men.

"Prices cannot return to their pre-war basis for some time, but the only way to start them back now and effectively break the high cost of living is for each man to appoint himself a committee of one to say to the dealer who exceeds a reasonable profit: 'You can't rob me, you damned profiteer!'

Prices on Decline.

"Despite the dark outlook along some lines, there is a ray of hope, for prices have decreased slightly since August, while ordinarily the trend of prices is upward during the winter. Prices should go down and they will go down, but time and the co-operation of all American people are necessary to solve the after-the-war problems.

"The thousands of country homes with cows grazing in the meadows and chickens scratching in the barnyards constitute a bulwark to our great American civilization. There is no danger to a community from small property owners. They constitute the body and the heart of the United States and the body and the heart are sound, the circulation is good, and the ills which afflict us are not cancers to eat away our civilization, but temporary ailments which the healthy body will throw off without lasting harmful effects."

Ames, who is in Oklahoma City for a few days' rest while engaged in the prosecution of the United States Steel corporation, referred touchingly to the ties which bind him to Oklahoma City and declared his intention of returning to private life here as soon as public duties will permit his feeling that he is not shirking responsibilities.

H. S. BASKET TOSSERS
ROMP ON THE NORMAL

Last night at the high school building the high school girls won over those of the Normal by a score of 21-12. The first half was anybody's game from start to finish with both sides holding their own. When the whistle blew the score stood 7-7.

The second half opened by the H. S. raising the score, by Miss Alyse McLachlan's accurate field shooting. Both sides were very evenly matched and played a fast and good game regardless of some roughness.

When the whistle blew the final score stood 21-12 in the High School's favor.

For the high school, Alyse McLachlan threw seven field goals and Bernice Roach two field and three free throws. While for the Normal, Lillian Thompson threw three field and two free throws, Opal Truitt, one field and Helen Mundy one field throw.

Referee for first half, Wray, and for the second, Lawrence Wolfe.

Miss Jones, Normal, coach, and Miss Cameron, H. S., coach.

Time keeper, first half, Lawrence Wolfe, and second half, Ruby Gay. A large crowd witnessed this game as it was to decide the city championship, and much interest and enthusiasm was manifested.

Radical Employers
Stir Up Strife,
Fenton's Charges

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 10.—Radicals among employers can and do stir up as much industrial strife as radicals among the labor men and should be accorded as vigorous treatment as the I. W. W. who seeks to inflame the laboring man, according to Edgar Fenton, president of the federation, who yesterday called a meeting of labor representatives for January 14, to map out the union's fight against the open shop resolution to come before the employers at their meeting here.

"There are enough strikes and troubles without employers hunting for disturbances, but if the open shop idea is undertaken by the employers the blame for its consequences will rest squarely with them, for the federation of labor is doing all in its power to overcome the naturally large amount of friction due to readjustment to peace conditions," Fenton said.

"Employers generally do not want the agitation for they recall the unsettled conditions in many Texas cities where the open shop fight has been waged. In Beaumont the fight went so far that every union man in the city boycotted the merchants, who sided with the employers, and established co-operative stores and patronized mail order houses."

HUNDRED FIFTY MILLION FOR RELIEF ABROAD ASKED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Authority to advance $150,000,000 for food relief of Austria, Poland and Armenia was asked by congress through Secretary Glass. Mr. Glass said this amount would relieve the situation until next fall. Assistance by the United States "is imperatively required," he said to alleviate "a desperate situation affecting millions of people."

Bolshevik Capture Arkisk.

HONOLULU, Jan. 10.—The Nippon Jiji, the Japanese newspaper here, published a Tokyo cable today reporting that the Bolsheviks have captured Arkisk, and that the allied diplomats have gone to Chiga. London advices yesterday reported nine thousand insurgents in control of Arkisk and General Semeff as being slightly east of Chiga.
